

COLLABORATION CENTER SYMPOSIUM EVENT

9:00 – 9:30 AM	Coffee, Setup and Reception Welcome by Don Harris, Vice Provost of Information Services and CIO
9:30 – 10:00 AM	SMART Board 101 by Sam Crow, Doug Simpson and Patrick McDaniel Our technical staff will demonstrate general SMART board use. We will talk about how to connect your personal laptop, download SMART notebook software and how to save your presentations to your laptop or thumbdrive. Bring your questions.
10:00 – 11:00 AM	Making use of a Collaborative Learning Environment Integrating technology into curriculum serves to intrinsically motivate students and foster a collaborative learning environment. In this demonstration, teachers will learn the basics of interactive whiteboard technology and how to use old and new techniques to teach today’s digitally-oriented students. Rachel Drummond Sardell, English Instructor, American English Institute
11:00 – 12:00 PM	Teaching Graphic Techniques See how the Collaboration Center’s flexible space layout, high-tech presentation tools and helpful staff create a supportive teaching environment for a Photoshop demo using layer transparency to blend lighting in architectural renderings. Nancy Cheng, Associate Professor, Architecture and Allied Arts
12:00 – 1:30 PM	Working Lunch “Tips and tricks” on using SMART boards. Our staff will lead discussions on how to integrate these technologies into classroom instruction.
1:30 – 2:30 PM	Using SMART boards to support Student Colloquiums Discussion and video of how the Chinese Flagship program uses the collaboration lab and SMART boards to help students practice presentations. In addition, this program used the interactive whiteboard technology and Google Maps for a pre-study orientation to Nanjing University. Amy Harter, Applied Second Language Chinese Flagship Coordinator
2:30 – 5:00 PM	Open House The afternoon features an Open House for students to play, create, and collaborate using SMART boards and the new Collaboration Center. We will have refreshments and a special afternoon guest appearance by the Oregon Duck at 2:30 pm.

You’re welcome to stay for any or all of these sessions.